Vatican Unveiled Exhibit

Hi everyone! I'm happy to be volunteering at the Vatican Unveiled exhibit at the Mall of America, representing St. George. It's been a wonderful experience so far. I've really enjoyed greeting visitors and helping out in the gift shop.

I hope you'll come see this incredible collection of papal artifacts, which is the largest outside Rome. The items are from the private collection of Father Richard Kunst, a priest from Duluth. The artifacts cover church history from its earliest days up to Pope Francis. You'll find relics from Pope St. John Paul II, St. John Vianney, St. Maximilian Kolbe, St. Mother Teresa, St. Thérèse of Lisieux, and many more.

One of my favorite items is a hiking stick that belonged to Pope St. John Paul II. It was a gift from Polish priests in Scotland and is decorated with an image of Lady Czestochowa, a Scottish Cross, and a Scottish thistle. I love it because it connects to my personal Scottish roots and to one of our most inspirational modern popes. I hope you'll come and find a special treasure that speaks to you, too.

The exhibit also celebrates the 175th anniversary of the Archdiocese of St. Paul and Minneapolis and highlights its early history.

Please stop by the Mall of America for this special event. The exhibit is open until February 1, so don't miss it! You can find tickets and more details here:

<https://www.archspm.org/vaticanunveiled/>

Hope to see you there soon! Many blessings!

- Meghan Flannery
